Baking An Apple Pie with Dad

Hi, my name is Alex. Baking an apple pie with Dad is my cherished memory. We gather all the ingredients: fresh apples, sugar, cinnamon, and buttery pie crust. Dad patiently shows me how to peel and slice the apples, sprinkling them with sugar and spice. The aroma fills the kitchen as the pie bakes in the oven. Finally, we take the warm and golden pie out, and the first bite is pure bliss. The joy of baking together creates a special bond and makes the apple pie taste even better.
