A Snowy Day

Sana woke up and looked out the window. Everything was white! Snow had fallen during the night. She put on her warm coat, boots, hat, and gloves, then ran outside. The snow crunched under her feet as she walked through her yard.

She made snow angels and built a snowman with a carrot nose. Then she threw snowballs at a tree and watched the snow fall down. When she went back inside, her mom gave her hot chocolate. Sana smiled and said, "Snowy days are the best!"
