A Lost Toy

Lily loved her little blue car. It was her favorite toy! She played with it everywhere.

One sunny morning, Lily went to the park. She played on the swings. She went down the slide. Then, she played in the sandbox. She made tall castles and deep tunnels with her car.

When it was time to go home, Lily packed her bag. But where was her blue car? She looked under the slide. She looked near the swings. She looked in her bag again. No blue car!

Lily felt sad. Her mommy said, "Don't worry, sweetie. Let's think. Where did you play with it last?"

Lily thought hard. "The sandbox!" she said.

They went back to the sandbox. And there it was! Her little blue car was sitting right beside a big sandcastle. Lily was so happy! She hugged her car and promised to keep it safe.
