Gowri Made A Lemonade Stand

It was a hot summer day, and Gowri had an idea. "I'll make a lemonade stand!" she said. She squeezed lemons, added sugar and water, and made a big pitcher of lemonade. She set up a table in front of her house. Soon, neighbors came by. "This is so tasty!" they said. Gowri smiled as she poured more cups. She saved the money she earned to buy books.

Answer the following questions.

1. Why did Gowri decide to make a lemonade stand?

2. What did she use to make lemonade?

3. How did the neighbors feel about the lemonade?

4. What did Gowri do with the money she made?

5. Have you ever helped with a stand or small project? What was it like?
